

Lactation Specialist Course

By Lactation Education Consultants

46 CERPS (45 L CERPS and 1 E CERP), 45 Nursing CEUs

Memphis, Tennessee

March 18th-22nd, 2019

- Are you a healthcare professional interested in receiving more information on supporting breastfeeding mothers and their babies?
- Do you need more education on how to resolve mothers' breastfeeding problems?
- Would you like to become an International Board Certified Lactation Consultant (IBCLC)? This course is a stepping stone and will give you the skills to start working with mothers and infants.
- Attendees will receive a syllabus created to also be used as a lactation reference text.

Samples of Included Topics

- History of breastfeeding and LC profession
- Medications affecting milk supply & the infant
- Perceived and True Insufficient Milk Supply: Causes and Concerns
- Alternative Feeding Methods including how to use nipple shields
- Sexual Abuse
- How to Increase Milk Supply
- Causes and treatment of sore nipples
- And many, many more...

Course Details

- Location: St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in the Barry Building Auditorium
- Address: 262 Danny Thomas Place. Memphis, TN 38105— Free parking available
- Times: 8A-5:30P Monday-Friday
- Cost: $720 (early bird); daily complimentary continental breakfast provided; lunch available in St. Jude cafeteria

For registration and more information?

1. Go to www.lactationeducation.com
2. Click on courses, then Certified Lactation Specialist Course (CLSC)
3. Email Julia.Noel@lebonheur.org or Ashley.Kilpatrick@lebonheur.org with questions.

Hosted by

Memphis Area Lactation Consultant Association